

ROBINA THOMAS LAID TO REST

Funeral services for Mrs. Robina M. Thomas, widow of James W. Thomas, resident of Spanish Fork for many years, were held Sunday afternoon at the Provo Deseret Mortuary chapel. Mrs. Thomas died Thursday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Alfred E. Solomon of Granger. Mrs. Thomas was the step-mother of Hyrum F. Thomas of Provo.

Bishop Elisha Warner of the Spanish Fork Second ward, presided at the services and made the closing remarks. The speakers were Charles Solomon of Salt Lake, Rev. Ensign of Salt Lake, Wells T. Brockbank of the Palmyra stake presidency and President Henry Gardner of Palmyra stake.

David John opened the services with prayer, and David W. Davis of Spanish Fork offered the invocation. Mr. Livingston and Mrs. Stella Brockbank of Spanish Fork rendered two vocal duets.

Interment was in the Spanish Fork cemetery, where the grave was dedicated by Wylie E. Thomas of Leland, step-son of the deceased. The floral offerings were many and beautiful.
